

I Seek Your Fire

M.T. Decker

*Three times denied what I believe,
and in that shame I hide
My foolish pride behind me now,
I need your fire.*

*When you spoke of what would be,
I really couldn't see
My heart is racing like the wind,
I seek your fire.*

*Our brothers hide like hounded sheep
Afraid of what's to come,
They're in the darkness reaching out
Give them your fire*

*The years have passed and now I see the road you chose for me.
Give me the strength to see this through Give me your fire.*

*The spirit moves and I am free
All pain is left behind
And those we taught are teachers now
They'll spread your fire.*
